

AFTER SOMEONE DIES

OUR DEEPEST CONDOLENCES

Finalising your loved one's affairs can be an overwhelming and emotionally draining task, but with Gowland Legal you can be assured that we are with you every step of the way.

Someone Dies ('the deceased')

The NSW Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages ('BDM') and other organisations are notified of the person's death

You search for the will

Depending on the circumstances, the death may need to be reported to the Coroner

There is a Will

There is no Will

The Will names an executor

The Will does not name an executor or the executor is unable to act

The executor organises the funeral

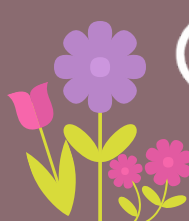

The funeral director or executor registers the death at BDM and gets the death certificate

The next of kin organises the funeral

The funeral director or next of kin registers the death at BDM and gets the death certificate
